MEDICINAL.

IT STOPS THE PROGRESS of Consumption. The makers of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are certain of it. They've proved it for years past and they're willing to sell it with the agreement that if it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, they'll return the money. Consumption is that scrofulous condition that comes from impure blood. The "Discovery" prevents it, if taken in time; cures it completely, if you haven't waited too long; gives relief and comfort, even in advanced cases. Use it in severe, lingering Coughs, Asthma, Weak Lungs, and every Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affection.

D. C. ROSENBAUM, Esq., of Duluth, Minn., writes as follows: "I had been going down in strength and weight for months. I was not able to stir and I smothered very often. After taking 'Discovery' my cough was relieved, I could walk three miles without trouble, catching cold didn't distress me now. As long as I live I'll praise 'G.M.D.'"

CATARRH ELY'S CREAM BALM

Is quickly absorbed. Cleanses the nasal passages. Allays Pain and Inflammation. Heals the Sores. Protects the membrane from additional cold.

Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. It will cure Hay-fever. A particle is applied in each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50 cents at Druggists or by mail.

ROW CAUSED BY A GOAT.

The hostilities between the Meade and Goetz families, of that portion of Brooklyn known as "Pigtown," has finally brought the principals into court. Stephen Meade's suit against John Goetz to recover $5,000 damages was begun yesterday in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Kellogg and a jury.

The damages are asked because of an assault which Goetz committed upon him by Goetz, and the cause of the whole trouble was an innocent goat.

The two families have lived next door to each other for two years near the junction of Rochester and East New York avenues. Their relations had always been cordial until the beginning of 1894. Each of the householders had a little garden. Their fence was destroyed by a goat which Meade received as a gift.

The goat soon became a favorite with both neighbors and the Meade family, but for some reason Goetz and his family were always suspicious of the animal. The goat invaded Goetz's garden and destroyed the growing vegetables. After the creature had made many raids of that sort Goetz armed himself one day with a double barreled shotgun filled to the muzzle with scrap iron, and watched for the goat. The animal soon entered the gate. Goetz took careful aim and fired. The goat fell dead.

Meade was incensed and in seeking an explanation from Goetz the two became entangled in a fight. The latter is charged with striking Meade over the wrist with the gun, breaking the limb.

This was the story told by the Meades in court yesterday. In defending his suit Goetz declared that Meade had first struck him, without provocation, and before he had made any hostile demonstrations. Mrs. Helen Kearns, who lives opposite, said that on the day in question—April 16, 1894—she had seen the goat trespass on Goetz's ground. After it was shot she said Meade came out for satisfaction, with a brick in each hand. After telling him "not to do anything" the witness said she became alarmed and ran back into her house.

The hearing was continued.—N. Y. Herald.

A PASTOR'S STRANGE FLIGHT.

Scranton was amazed yesterday by the sudden reappearance of Rev. Carl Weisswasser, who left that city nearly two years ago, says a Scranton, Pa., telegram. He was pastor of Hickory Street Presbyterian church and Mrs. John Schener, a member of his flock, and the wife of a merchant, absented herself at the same time.

When he went away he left his wife and family there, and reports then had it he had eloped with Mrs. Schener.

"They lie and they know they lie," Rev. Weisswasser declared yesterday, speaking of the rumors connected with his going away. "I have returned to defend myself before the Lackawanna Presbytery, now in session here, and have ample evidence to prove my innocence. I left Scranton because I was disgusted with the fault-finding existing in the congregation, where all the members wanted to lead, and any man feeling as I did then, when the mind gives way and the soul breaks down, would do the same. When heart sick, I dropped everything and left the congregation to itself.

Mr. Weisswasser denies emphatically that he was ever guilty of immorality, and as to Mrs. Schener he knew nothing of her. He left Scranton with the full knowledge of his wife, who helped him to get his trunk ready. He went to Canada and got work making up boxes at a glass factory. Then he went to Chicago, where for a year past he worked under the name of Charles Walters, as an engineer for the Heidenreich Company.

"Every nail I drove," he said, "was wet with tears, and I think it would be well for some of our ministers to go out among the people once in awhile and learn something of the labor question. The only wrong that I have done was to throw down the holy office of minister. If I had opened my heart to the brethren of the Presbytery they would have helped and encouraged me. I will do so now."

Rev. Weisswasser before coming to Scranton preached for six years in Brooklyn.

This distressing malady is caused by a run-down state of the health, and is often a forerunner of other and more dangerous diseases.

Brown's Iron Bitters

cures headache by removing the cause of it; and this is the way it does it.

It purifies and enriches the blood, quickens the action of the kidneys, the liver and the bowels, and gently and pleasantly stimulates the digestive organs, and in fact thoroughly renovates and tones up the whole system—and you have no more headache. And besides it is pleasant to take, and will not stain the teeth nor cause constipation.

Is this not better than dosing yourself with disagreeable and dangerous drugs, which at the best can do no lasting good?

Don't be deceived by imitations. See the crossed red lines on the wrapper. Our book, "How to Live a Hundred Years," tells all about it; should be read by everybody; free for cash stamp.
